I love to garden—growing my own fruits & veggies and flower gardens. I read every day. My real passion is raising my kids: Elijah -14 & Sara - 12. I enjoy making them laugh and being silly with them. I spend the majority of my energy teaching them how important education is, how to be independent, and how to be compassionate people. We recently expanded our family to include my husband Art and my step-children, Madison - 18 and Thomas - 12.

To Do List

My family goes to the movies a lot. We're also an outdoor family. We enjoy sand dunning & going to dry lake beds to ride our buggies & dirt bikes. We love to hike, go to the river, or camp in our RV & tents. We volunteer our time to homeless shelters and we're always looking for volunteer opportunities.
