

Sadie

My dogs Orië and Tara were originally featured as Pets of the Month in September 2016. Unfortunately, in April of 2017 an irresponsible meter reader came into our backyard and failed to latch the gate properly. My beloved Orië got out and was hit by a car. I was devastated. I loved that dog and still miss her very much. I finally began looking for another dog in late May of 2017. I spent hours online everyday searching shelters and hours on the weekends driving to shelters all over Southern California. In August of 2017 I found "the" one! I knew she was out there somewhere and I would know it when I had found her. I fell in love with her the second our eyes met. I named her Sadie. She's a one year old pit-bull mix. She had a rough start. She was found wandering the streets of Bellflower and her owner never claimed her. When I adopted her she had kennel cough which took 6 weeks to get clear up and then she was spayed. She's been such a trooper through it all and still loves going to the vet's office. She's still a puppy and Tara, our other dog, tolerates her but isn't thrilled with all the chaos that Sadie creates. She's really active, super social, loves to chase squirrels just like Orië did, and has even caught a mouse!
