

My husband and I found Winston under a trash bin at our church in the summer of 2006. He has grown into a sweet and very talkative cat! He loves sitting by me as I write my stories. When he feels he's not receiving enough attention, he taps at the computer screen while I'm grading.

Winston belongs to Donna Phillips,
Adjunct English Instructor

