

Schnitzer's name is German (Schnit-sah) and translates to boo-boo. When she was a puppy, she had the personality of the little girl from Monster's Inc, thus we call her Boo.

She's 13 years old. She loves to dig, chase squirrels up trees, go for rides in the car (but not in the direction of the vet or groomer's), sit with you if you're sick and sings to "Little Drummer Boy."

She once beat out a blood hound in a howling contest.
