

Strategic Plan: 2016-2017 Progress Report

Dear Colleagues,

Congratulations on a year of outstanding accomplishments in implementing year one of Citrus College's 2016-2021 Strategic Plan. As you review this 2016-2017 Progress Report, I think you will be impressed by the efforts of the entire college community toward achieving the plan's overarching goal, to increase student success and completion.

A critical component of college success is enrolling students who are prepared for college-level courses. To that end, the college formalized AB 288 Dual Enrollment MOUs with all five of its K-12 feeder districts, and classes commenced as of spring 2017. To increase placement accuracy, five high schools participated in the college's Early Decision and Multiple Measures Assessment Project pilot study.

Moving the needle on college success also requires innovative instruction and curriculum, such as the seven math 20/29 linked courses, with counseling and tutoring services embedded, which were offered in spring and fall. As part of the L.A. Strong Workforce regional project, the college collaborated with other community colleges to develop work-based learning processes, as well as norms and practices to be used in the field with employers.

Students also need a safe and welcoming environment in which to thrive. A Campus Climate Survey was developed to identify students' perceptions and experiences pertaining to unwanted sexual contact and sexual assault. In addition, Human Resources conducted over 20 Title IX training sessions for students, faculty and staff.

Promoting the college's position as a leader in higher education instills a vision for success in the minds of students, as well as a sense of pride in the Citrus College community. The college's 2016-17 marketing efforts included ads on streaming radio, various websites, Gold Line stations, buses, print media, the Dodgers Annual Yearbook and myriad other platforms. An Alumni Speakers Series featured successful Citrus College alumni, and the annual K-14 Education Forum reinforced strong partnerships with our K-12 unified school districts. The Foundation's 50th Anniversary Celebration brought together 300 friends, new and old, to celebrate an institution that makes student success its top priority.

While I am sure you will find the accomplishments set forth in the 2016-2017 Progress Report to be inspiring, it is important to note that the report also reflects the college's commitment to integrated planning. The report's initiatives mirror those activities in the college's new Enrollment Management Plan, our Basic Skills Initiative, the Student Success and Support Program, and the Student Equity Plan. This level of integration keeps us working together and collectively focused on student success.

Thank you for your many contributions to student success and for making Citrus College a "College of Completion."

<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Create dual enrollment MOUs with district high schools which are operationalized by fall 2017 and lead to increased enrollment and FTES from each district high school.2. Develop a calendar of monthly discipline council meetings for high school faculty in math and English, along with proposed topics for each meeting and projected joint activities, such as curriculum revision, professional development, etc.3. Align noncredit ESL curriculum with regional adult education curriculum in order to facilitate the transition of adult learners to Citrus College.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The college will have formalized MOUs with at least five district high schools, and a schedule of classes in each of the six high schools and a process to enroll students by fall 2017.2. Discipline councils in math and English will conclude the year with a specific plan to align high school and Citrus College classes, enrich faculty development, and more fully prepare high school students for college.3. The curriculum will be aligned by June 30, 2017, and a plan of action will be in place to recruit adult learners.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. AB 288 MOU's have been completed for all five feeder USD's. These include Claremont, Monrovia, Duarte, Azusa, and Glendora. AB 288 courses have been offered in spring 2017 at Monrovia, Duarte, Gladstone, Sierra, Claremont, and San Antonio high schools. Classes are planned for scheduling at each of the above high schools, including Glendora, for fall 2017. Student enrollment processes are completed and approved.2. The Discipline Council met in November 2016, at Citrus College. Faculty from the Monrovia, Azusa and Claremont districts, as well as math and English faculty from Citrus College, were present. Discussions focused on class content, Common Core in mathematics, the opportunities available through AB 288, the possibility of observing in each other's classrooms, and the love of teaching. All participants indicated a desire to have these conversations on a regular basis. The Discipline Council meeting for March 2017 was cancelled due to lower-than-expected attendance by high school faculty.3. Several curriculum alignment meetings occurred between the Citrus College noncredit ESL adjunct faculty and the five district USD adult school ESL teachers in the CCAEC (Citrus College Adult Education Consortium). Gaps in course objectives and standards were identified across the consortium. Next, ESL levels were normed along with objectives and content. The CCAEC adult schools primarily adopted the content, objectives, and standards found in Citrus College's noncredit ESL Beginning 1, Beginning 2, Intermediate 1, and Intermediate 2 courses. Additionally, Citrus College noncredit counselors and the counselors at the adult education campuses have met to work on smoothing the transition of students from the adult schools to Citrus College. Pathways are now in development.
