FORMATION OF NEW POLICIES

1. It shall be the obligation of the Board of Trustees to provide leadership and direction in formulating the educational and fiscal policies under which Citrus Community College shall be operated. The Board shall consult with the Superintendent/President and his staff concerning the formation of all educational and fiscal policies and shall use its best judgment to formulate policies which will equitably serve the needs of both the College and the citizens of the district.
2. All policies must be approved by the Board of Trustees.
3. Policies may be recommended by any individual or by any organized group within the College and submitted to the Superintendent/President of the College.
4. Policies pertaining to curriculum or involving the welfare of teachers shall be reviewed by the Steering Committee.
5. All policies presented to the Board by the Superintendent/President shall first be considered by the Administrative Council.
