COUNSELING

The District shall provide comprehensive counseling services to students, including but not limited to:

1. Academic counseling, in which the student is assisted in assessing, planning, and implementing his or her immediate and long-range academic goals;
2. Career counseling, in which the student is assisted in assessing his or her aptitudes, abilities, and interests, and is advised concerning current and future employment trends;
3. Personal counseling, in which the student is assisted with personal, family or other social concerns, when that assistance is related to the student's education;
4. Coordination with the counseling aspects of other services to students, which exist on campus, including but not limited to those services provided in programs for students with special needs, skills testing programs, financial assistance programs, and job placement services.

The District shall provide counseling for all first time students enrolled for more than six units, students enrolled provisionally, and students on academic or progress probation.
