ENGL 103H Composition and Critical Thinking 3 Units

Prerequisite: ENGL 101.

Strongly Recommended: READ 099 if required by reading placement exam or if required by reading level.

This honors course uses literature as a basis for the teaching of in-depth critical thinking and advanced composition. The emphasis is upon the analysis of issues, problems, and situations represented in literature and on the development of effective written arguments in support of the analysis. Critical thinking skills are demonstrated through research papers, in-class presentations, and collaborative exploration of material. Students are expected to demonstrate honors level work which includes strong critical thinking skills, thorough analysis of assigned readings, and presentation and leadership skills demonstrated through class participation. Meets the IGETC critical thinking requirement. 54 lecture hours. CSU UC

ENGL 104 Advanced Rhetoric: The Classical Essay 3 Units

Prerequisite: ENGL 101.

This course is designed to help students develop critical thinking, writing and research skills beyond the level achieved in ENGL 101. Particular emphasis is placed on increasingly complex classical methods of invention, arrangement and style for writing assignments that demand sound organizational skills. Students will read and critically evaluate (for meaning, purpose, strategy and style) expository and argumentative essays from a variety of classical sources and multi-cultural perspectives and then use these essays as rhetorical models for their own writing assignments. Students will be required to test prejudices they hold, prove or disprove a hypothesis, evaluate the opinions of others, explain the effect of the media, and attempt to synthesize opposing arguments on an issue through critical thinking. Most of the written assignments will require library research and documentation. Meets the IGETC critical thinking requirement. 54 lecture hours. CSU UC
