HIST 107H Political and Social History of the United States - Honors 3 Units

Meet Honors Program entrance requirements that include eligibility for ENG 101 or completion of equivalent.

The course is a survey of the political, economic and social development of North America and the United States to 1876. Students will evaluate the forces that work to create political, economic, diplomatic, and social change in colonial and early U.S. history, along with how individuals, society and government respond to change. Students will also study the historiography of early American history by evaluating how historical interpretation has changed over the years. Students will also engage in their own historiography by creating an original research paper focused on early U. S. history. The course is designed to create a stronger comprehension of early U.S. history and strengthen analytical, critical thinking, community/global consciousness and communication skills. 54 lecture hours.
