The purpose of this Timely Warning is to raise campus awareness to a safety concern.

Citrus College received information from Azusa Pacific University (APU) Department of Campus Safety that on Friday, March 1, 2013, at about 11:39 a.m., a student reported to Campus Safety that while walking eastbound on Alosta Avenue, just north of the University Park apartment complex, she was approached by an unknown Hispanic male in an older, silver compact vehicle. The suspect called out to her and subsequently exposed his genitalia to her. The student walked away from the suspect who minutes later drove up to her again, this time in front of the Bowles Apartments, honked the vehicle horn to gain her attention, and then exposed himself again. The suspect then drove eastbound on Alosta Avenue, away from the university.
