What Does Love Mean? As discussed by children ages 4 to 8:

When my grandmother got arthritis, she couldn’t bend over and paint her toenails anymore. So my grandfather does it for her all the time, even when his hands got arthritis too.

When someone loves you, the way they say your name is different; you know that your name is safe in their mouth.

Love is when a girl puts on perfume and the boy puts on shaving cologne and they go out and smell each other.

Love is when you go out to eat and give someone most of your french-fries without making them give you any of theirs.

Love is what makes you smile when you are tired.

Love is when my mommy makes coffee for my daddy and she takes a sip before giving it to him, to make sure the taste is ok.

Love is what’s in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and listen.

If you want to learn to love better, you should start with a friend who you hate.

Love is when you tell a guy you like his shirt, then he wears it every day.

Love is like a little old woman and a little old man who are still friends even after they know each other so well.

My mommy loves me more than anybody, you don’t see anyone else kissing me to sleep at night.

Love is when mommy gives daddy the biggest piece of chicken.

Love is when mommy sees daddy smelly and sweaty and still says he is handsomer then Robert Redford.

Love is when your puppy licks your face even after you left him alone all day.

A four year old child whose next door neighbor was an elderly gentleman who had recently lost his wife and upon seeing the man cry, the little boy went into the old gentleman’s yard, climbed into his lap, and just sat there. When his mother asked what he had said to the neighbor, the little boy said, “Nothing, I just helped him cry”.
