Letters

by A. R. Gurney

Directed by Dean Hess

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 2009 AT 8PM

Simply by reading a lifetime of correspondence aloud, LOVE LETTERS traces the bittersweet relationship of staid, dutiful lawyer Andrew Makepeace Ladd II and the lively, unstable artist Melissa Gardner. Nearly 50 years of their lives unfolds from what is written – and what is left unsaid – in their letters. Pulitzer-prize nominated LOVE LETTERS is probably A.R. Gurney's best known and best loved play, and has been a vehicle for many famous couples such as Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward.
