TOM GERFEN'S RETIREMENT PARTY

In last week's edition of the Weekly Bulletin, Tom Gerfen's retirement party was listed under the wrong date. Tom's retirement party is actually being held on Thursday, September 7 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Faculty Staff Lounge. The celebration includes a buffet lunch and there is no cost to attend. For more information, contact Linda Swan at (626) 852-8002.

GOT CITRUS NEWS?

We want to hear from you. E-mail Citrus-related information to Stacy Quillen at squillen@citruscollege.edu. The Weekly Bulletin is distributed to all faculty and staff via campus e-mail. Taste of Autumn Invites Coming Soon!

Watch for your invitation to the Citrus College Foundation's signature food and wine tasting event! Invitations to A Taste of Autumn 2006 will soon be distributed to all faculty and staff. This popular fundraiser will take place on Sunday, October 8 from 4 to 8 p.m.

During the event, patrons can enjoy delectable dishes and fine wines while contributing to programs that directly benefit Citrus College students. Also included is a silent auction, an opportunity drawing for a weekend getaway, and an art/sculpture exhibit and sale by the Citrus College Art Department. To complete the evening, entertainment will be provided by the world-renown Citrus Singers, the Citrus College Jazz Combo, and the Night Shift pop rock ensemble. A special highlight of A Taste of Autumn 2006 will be a meet and greet with Davide Cabassi, a finalist in the 2005 Van Cliburn International Piano Competition who will also be performing at the Haugh Performing Arts Center at 2 p.m.

Don't miss out on this spectacular evening! Citrus College employees receive a discounted ticket price of $65 per person, with a limit of four tickets. Payroll deduction is available. To purchase a ticket, visit www.haughpac.com or call 626-963-9411. For additional information, call ext. 5557.

Bright Futures Book Award Program News

To date, thirty-one Citrus College employees have contributed to the Bright Futures Book Award Program. Seventeen of these employees opted for payroll deductions on a continuous basis. It is not too late for you to do the same!

Over the years, the Citrus College community has sought after additional funding resources and worked diligently to reduce the textbook expense burden. Now, the Bright Futures Book Award program, which is being offered through the Citrus College Foundation, will provide the campus community with yet another opportunity to increase its support of students.

By contributing to the Bright Futures Book Award Fund, donors will help provide textbook grants for incoming students from our six district high schools. Donations can be made by payroll deduction, credit card, or check. For more information or an enrollment form, contact the Foundation at ext. 8825.

Citrus People

The "Citrus People" section will be included in the first Weekly Bulletin of every month. If you would like to announce any achievements, births, marriages, deaths, etc., e-mail the pertinent information to squillen@citruscollege.edu for inclusion in the next "Citrus People" update.

Births

- Sandy Taksas, security, is the proud grandmother of new twins. The twins were born to her daughter, Sarah, on August 24. With these newest additions, Sandy now has 7 grandchildren!

Deaths

- Perry Morrow, skilled maintenance worker, passed away on Thursday, August 24. Perry suffered from an aneurysm in his chest.

Featured Faculty Member: Bruce Grossman

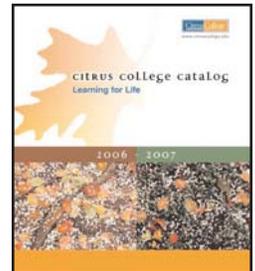

The Faculty Development Committee has announced that Bruce Grossman, Business/CSIS instructor, is the Featured Faculty member for September. Bruce has worked at Citrus College for four years (3 full-time, 1 part-time). He holds a juris doctorate from Washington University School of Law and a bachelor's degree in business management from State University of New York at Binghamton. Before becoming a full-time Citrus faculty member, Bruce was a private practice lawyer and specialized in employment law. He is also the author of a book entitled, Workplace Politics: A Practical Guide for Making Your Experience at Work More Positive, Productive and Pleasant. He says he became a teacher because he loves teaching. "Even while I was practicing law, I always enjoyed the classes I taught much more than the day-to-day details of law practice." When he is not teaching, Bruce enjoys stand-up comedy, movies, music (especially Jazz), puzzles and games, sports (particularly baseball), and observing animals and various animal behaviors. Bruce says he loves working at Citrus. "I am proud to be a teacher and particularly proud to be a member of the Citrus faculty," he said.

Catalog Now Available

The Office of External Relations is pleased to announce that the new 2006-2007 Citrus College Catalog is now available. Catalogs will be distributed to all departments beginning Tuesday, September 5. An electronic version of the college catalog will be available on our new web site starting Monday, September 18. Staff and/or faculty members requesting additional catalogs should contact Albert Romo at aromo@citruscollege.edu. In your e-mail, please state your department and purpose for requesting additional copies. Catalogs are also available for purchase in the campus bookstore.

Staff Member Presents Info

Dan Vilter, performing arts tech supervisor, recently spoke on the many benefits of video games at the Homeschool Association of California Home Education conference. He will also be speaking at the Live and Learn Conference in Albuquerque on the topic of "Reading in Good Time," which will cover the advantages of allowing young people time to develop reading skills as they are capable with no set time frame or regimen of instruction.
