Earn a bachelor's degree at Citrus College

Earn a bachelor's degree from California State University Long Beach (CSULB) without leaving Citrus College. Citrus is developing a new program in which students, faculty and staff can earn a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Studies from CSULB by taking classes on the community college's Glendora campus. An orientation meeting will be held Monday, February 26 at 5 p.m. in the Citrus College faculty lounge. Those interested in participating in the program, or who would simply like to learn more about CSULB, are invited to attend. As part of the proposed program, Citrus College will offer five 400-level undergraduate CSULB classes on campus, the first of which are planned to be offered in the summer. The web address published in a previous weekly bulletin was inoperable. The correct web address is www.csulb.edu/prof. For more information about the Baccalaureate Degree Classes at Citrus College, or to RSVP for the orientation, call (626) 914-8700.

ASCC Presents "True Love Doesn't Hurt"

The Associated Students of Citrus College will be presenting the workshop, "True Love Doesn't Hurt," on Wednesday, February 14 at 11 a.m. This presentation is designed for both men and women and will address the subject of emotional and physical violence in relationships. It will be led by Amanda Turek from the YWCA-WINGS, will be bringing literature as well as some of the t-shirt artwork from their art therapy program "The Clothesline Project." All faculty and staff are encouraged to share this information with their students and are also invited to attend. For more information, call ext. 8603.

Pack the Gym for Sophomore Night 2007

Submitted by Andrew Wheeler, Sports Information Coordinator

You are invited to join us in honoring our sophomores and watching some of the most exciting basketball in Southern California! The Citrus College Athletics Department would like to pack the gym for Sophomore Night 2007.

Both the men and the women's basketball teams will be playing Santa Monica college on Saturday, February 17 in the Citrus Gymnasium. The men's team will take to the courts at 5:30 p.m. The women are scheduled to play at 7:30 p.m.

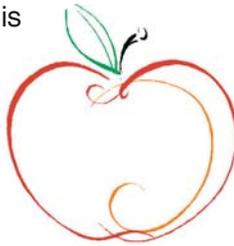

Admission is free. For more information, call 857-4018.

Careers In Teaching Event

The Center for Teacher Excellence is hosting the annual Careers in Teaching Workshop and College Fair on Wednesday, February 14 from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Ross L. Handy Campus Center.

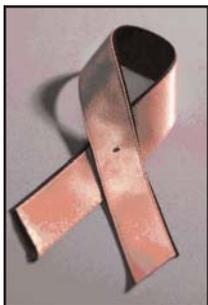

The event's guest speakers include Dr. Dale Salwak, Citrus College language arts instructor; Scott Taylor, Azusa Unified School District's Teacher of the Year; Matt Murdock, recipient of the California First Year Teacher of the Year Award; and Scott Magnauson, Gladstone High School principal. Representatives from the teaching programs of 20 different colleges will be available to speak with students. Refreshments will be served. To RSVP or request additional information, call (626) 857-4006 or stop by the Career/Transfer Center in ED 129.

Veteran Student Discussion

A two-hour staff development course entitled, "The Veteran Student: From Combat to the Classroom," will be held in the Faculty Lounge from 2 to 4 p.m. on Tuesday, February 20. The course is designed to help staff and faculty gain awareness of the difficult transition veterans face when returning to civilian life. The workshop will deal with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, particularly the symptoms that many student veterans may experience and college staff may notice. This is an opportunity for staff to not only receive help in identifying PTSD symptoms, but also to discuss possible strategies for helping our veteran students succeed in a college setting. For more information, call ext. 8096.

LA County Race for the Cure

If you would like to help in the fight against breast cancer, please save the date of Sunday, February 25, 2007. Join or sponsor the Citrus College team that will be participating in a 5K (3.2 mile) walk/run event at the Rose Bowl. Adult registration is $35.00 (before February 17) and is open to all Citrus College staff, their friends, and their families. Team members will be sporting Citrus College caps that were graciously donated by Dr. Viera. For more information, visit www.komenlacounty.org or contact Holly Colville at ext. 8777.

Core Indicator Workshop

The next course in the Professional Development Opportunities for Academicians series will be offered on February 23 in the Distance Education Computer Lab from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. The "Core Indicator Workshop" will provide the keys to accessing and analyzing vocational program data: enrollments, retention, success, and follow up are presented. There will be a hands-on opportunity to explore your data and to have your questions answered. The workshop will be conducted by Chuck Wiseley from the Chancellor's Office. For more information, contact Kim Holland at ext. 8701.

Spring Intercampus Athletics

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the spring intercampus athletic event (AKA spring intramurals) schedule has been modified. The new schedule includes a half-court basketball game from 3 to 5 p.m. on March 9, an indoor volleyball game from 3 to 5 p.m. on April 13, and a slow pitch softball game from 3 to 5 p.m. on May 11. There will no longer be a $20 entry fee, but prizes will not be awarded. Bring your own water/refreshment.

If you are interested in participating in one or all three athletic events, call ext. 8662 or ext. 4037 before February 23.

Work Study Student News

The CalWORKs Program has great news to share! We have been allotted funds from the Chancellors office for CalWORKs Work Study this fiscal year. This is a wonderful opportunity to have a work study student at little or NO charge to your department! Their pay will be covered by Federal Work-Study and/or CalWORKs Work-Study. We are currently in the process of placing student workers in available positions for this semester. If you are in need of a student worker in your department or work area, have any questions, or would like a student referred to you for an interview, please contact Susan Hensley at ext. 8025.

Stuffed Owl Cafe Menu

The Stuffed Owl Cafe Menu for the week of February 12-16 was not available as of noon on Monday.
