Associate Degree in Nursing Program News

Irene Malmgren, vice president of instruction, announced the first program opportunity for the Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) Program last week. All information concerning the program can be found online at <http://www.citruscollege.edu/ADN>. The campus community is also invited to attend an information session regarding the program that is being held on Tuesday, April 17 at 1:30 p.m. in LH 102. Special thanks to all who have played a role in helping the college earn "initial approval" status from the Board of Registered Nursing and the Chancellor's Office.

TDC to Promote Tire Safety With Free Clinic

Passenger car and light-duty truck owners are invited to a drive-thru tire clinic at Citrus College on Friday, April 27 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. This free event is being hosted by the Citrus College Automotive Technology Technicians' Development Center (TDC) in observance of National Tire Safety Week, a week-long effort to educate motorists about proper tire care that is being spearheaded by tire manufacturers. The clinic will be held in the Citrus College Automotive Technology Building, which is located at 1000 W. Foothill Blvd in Glendora.

Drivers will enter the campus off of Barranca Avenue and exit through the Citrus College Gym Parking Lot. The clinic will be staffed by students in the TDC. In addition, Certified Automotive Specialists in Glendora and Carquest Auto Parts in Irwindale are providing free tire pressure gauges while supplies last. For more information call (626) 857-4037.

Theater Arts Presents Student-Run Play

For the first time in the history of Citrus College, the students are going to run the show. The Citrus College Theater Arts Program will present its very first student-produced play Friday, April 20 through Sunday, April 22. The play, entitled "SubUrbia," is about a group of suburban 20-somethings trying to support each other through the difficult task of becoming adults.. It contains mature themes and is not intended for younger audiences. Performances will be held in the Citrus College Little Theater at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 20 and Saturday, April 21. They will also be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 21 and Sunday, April 22. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit www.citruscollege.edu/hpac or call (626) 963-9411.

Transfer Reception 2007

Attention faculty and staff: Do you know a student who plans on transferring at the end of the semester? Invite them to attend the 2007 Transfer Achievement Reception, which is being hosted by the Associated Students of Citrus College and the Career/Transfer Center! Students who are transferring to a four-year university for the fall 2007 will be honored for their achievements. The event will be held in the Art Center Quad from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Friday, May 18. Lunch will be provided and RSVP is required. For more information, call Raul Sanchez at (626) 857-4064 or e-mail him at rsanchez@citruscollege.edu.

Cinco de Mayo Celebration

The Citrus College chapter of the Latina Leadership Network (LLN) and the Citrus College Latinos Unidos Student Association (LUSA) are hosting a special Cinco De Mayo celebration on Thursday, May 3 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Citrus College Campus Center Quad. As part of the event, there will be performances by Mariachi Juvenil Ensueno de Azusa and Ballet Folklorico. And, although Cinco De Mayo is about more than the food and drinks, there will be plenty available. Refreshments will be sold and all proceeds will be used to provide scholarships for LLN and LUSA students. Christine Chavez, granddaughter of civil rights leader Cesar Chavez, will provide a keynote address during the event. The event is being sponsored by LLN, LUSA, the Associated Students of Citrus College, EOP&S, the Career/Transfer Center and the Citrus College Financial Aid Office. For more information about the Citrus College Cinco De Mayo Celebration call Laura Villegas at (626) 914-8638.

Annual Esthetician Job Fair

The Citrus College Esthetician Program is providing its students with the opportunity to explore employment opportunities in the lucrative field of skin care. An Esthetician Job Fair will be held in the Citrus College Campus Center Quad from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Monday, April 23. "The purpose of this event is to connect students with people who work in the industry. Our goal is to help them find employment," said Caroline Lurette, esthetician instructor and event organizer. "Students will meet a wide variety of people. They will have the opportunity to ask questions and be interviewed for possible jobs." For more information about the Citrus College Esthetician Program's Job Fair, call (626) 914-8878.
