

Weekly Bulletin

February 11-15, 2008

Citrus College

HAPPENINGS

FEBRUARY

TUESDAY - 12

Softball v. Moorpark College at 2:30 p.m. at the Baseball Field.

FRIDAY - 15

Campus closed for the President's Day Holiday

SATURDAY - 16

The Saturday Series for Kids continues with "Madeline and the Bad Hat" at 1:30 p.m. in the Haugh PAC. Tickets are $6.

B-BALL BOOSTERS

Show your support for the number-one ranked Citrus College Men's Basketball Team by attending "Pack the Gym Night" on Saturday, February 23. More details to follow.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Instructors, would you like your students to participate in community service activities that relate to your classroom instruction for the Spring semester? Call Sandra Harden at extension 4163 to find out more about the Citrus College Service Learning Program.

GOT CITRUS NEWS?

Stacy Quillen-Armstrong, publications specialist in the Office of External Relations, will be on maternity leave through May 1, 2008. Sarah Torribio, adjunct faculty member and adviser to Litrus magazine, will be responsible for the Weekly Bulletin during Stacy's absence. If you are interested in publishing information in the Weekly Bulletin, please e-mail all of the pertinent information to Paula Green, director of communications, at pgreen@citruscollege.edu.

Coffee Break to Showcase Products

The Office of External Relations invites you to a Coffee Break Product Showcase, in the Campus Center Faculty Lounge Wednesday, February 13. During the open house, which will run from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., you are welcome to enjoy Cinnabons and coffee while perusing the latest promotional product catalogs and samples from hooray!promos. Products showcased include apparel, pens, high-tech gadgets and light-up toys—giveaways that might be just the ticket for your next event. Bring your business card as there will be a chance to win great raffle prizes. To RSVP or for information, contact Karine Smith or Joy Leslie at (909) 592-9665.

Flex Day to Take Place Next Tuesday

The Flex Committee has been busy preparing activities for faculty and staff before the start of the Spring 2008 semester. The theme for the event, set for Tuesday, February 19, is student engagement. Educator Dr. Vincent Tinto will speak on engaging students for success and provide tips on how to motivate and reach students. Morning workshops include Strategies for Student Success; Engaging Today's Student; Dealing with Disruptive Students (panel); and Engaging Technology with Office 2007. Afternoon workshops include Engagement—Making it Happen at Citrus; Engaging Today's Student; Dealing with Disruptive Students (panel); and Engaging Technology with Office 2007. The following is the Flex Day 2008 schedule:

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 7:45 a.m. to 8:15 a.m. | Coffee and Welcome |
| 8:20 a.m. to 9:40 a.m. | Keynote Address with Question/Answer Session |
| 9:50 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. | Morning Workshops |
| 11:45 a.m. to 1:10 p.m. | Faculty Lunch with Dr. Tinto and Round Table Discussion |
| 1:20 p.m. to 3:10 p.m. | Afternoon Workshops |

FCCC Searching for Tutors, Mentors

Attention faculty, staff, and students: do you need to make extra money? Would you like to teach, mentor and make an impact on foster youth? The YESS (Youth Empowerment Strategies for Success) Program is looking for individuals to help at-risk youth build academic skills. The pay is $11 to $13/hour. You'll receive paid training and ongoing support. E-mail your resume to drussell@citruscollege.edu.

Phantom Star to Perform

Broadway singer Dale Kristien, best known for her role as Christine Daaé in Andrew Lloyd Webber's "Phantom of the Opera," will present a music-filled performance at the Haugh Performing Arts Center on Sunday, February 17 at 2 p.m. The Citrus Blue Note Swing Orchestra will join Kristien in "To Broadway with Love: Dale Kristien and Friends," which will emphasize romantic songs. Tickets are $26, $24 for students and seniors.

Owl Bookshop News

If you placed an order for See's Candy with the Owl Bookshop last month, it will be available for pick-up February 13 and 14. In addition, the Bookshop is proud to announce that the Papyrus card, gift wrap/bag and gift lines are available for purchase. Mention the Weekly Bulletin and receive 10 percent off Papyrus purchases through February 29, 2008.

Student Learning Outcomes Assessments

The Citrus community, especially faculty and deans, are encouraged to attend one of four different workshops scheduled to address Student Learning Outcomes Assessment Strategies. All workshops will be held in the Faculty Lounge. For information, contact Cynthia DeVille at ext. 5929.

Thursday, February 21 from 2:40 p.m. to 3:40 p.m.

Friday, February 22 from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Thursday, February 28 from 2:40 p.m. to 3:40 p.m.

Friday, February 29 from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Tours of the Campus

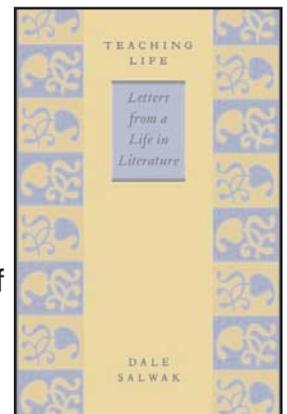

The Office of External Relations conducts individual and group campus tours. Studies show the most influential factor in choosing a college is the campus tour. If somebody stops by your office requesting a tour or looking for a guide, refer them to Linda Merlo at ext. 5123 or ext. 8772.

Foundation Scholarships

Please inform students that applications for Fall 2008 scholarships from the Foundation are available in the Admissions and Records Office. Sixteen scholarships, from $300 to $5,000, are available for students transferring to a four-year school in summer or fall of 2008. Over 100 scholarships, from $100-$1,000, are available for new and continuing Citrus students. Scholarships requiring department recommendations (AGS, Biological Sciences, Health Occupations, Journalism, Music, Physical Education, Social Sciences, Water Technology) are also available. The deadline is Friday, March 7, 2008. For information, call ext. 8825.

Book Pre-orders Available

On April 1, 2008, language arts instructor Dale Salwak celebrates the release of his 24th book. Published by University of Iowa Press, "Teaching Life: Letters from a Life in Literature" reflects on the author's 35-year career of teaching literature. Part epistolary memoir and part handbook, the book is a reflection on life and a primer on teaching as a vocation. Available in bookstores at the start of April, it can be pre-ordered through a variety of online book distributors, including Amazon.

Stuffed Owl Cafe 'Hot Line' to be Closed Until Spring Semester Start

Due to low traffic, the Stuffed Owl Cafe will be limiting its offerings until the start of Spring Semester 2008. The usual "hot line" of pre-prepared meals will be closed during this time. Hungry students, staff and faculty will be glad to know that the grill and the sandwich line, as well as items like yogurt and pre-prepared salads, will continue to be available.