Weekly Accreditation Update

Each week Citrus faculty and staff will have the opportunity to learn about the standards of accreditation and what we must address in our self study in order to prepare for the upcoming accreditation visit. A different chapter or two will be featured in each issue of the Weekly Bulletin and everyone is encouraged to log on to the Intranet to read and give feedback to the co-chairs assigned to writing the chapter. The accrediting commission strongly encourages participation from all areas of the college, so now is your chance to take part in this important process.

Veterans Center Opening

The Citrus College Veterans Center will be celebrating its grand opening with an open house on Thursday, May 14 from 10 a.m. through 3 p.m. The open house will include refreshments, cookies, fellowship, and a Grand Opening ribbon cutting ceremony. Representatives from Wal-Mart, the Citrus Community College District Board of Trustees, and government will be joining the celebration. For more information, call (626) 852-6421.

Paperless Class Schedule To Debut

Businesses, organizations, and individuals throughout the state are cutting costs and conserving resources. Citrus College is no exception.

Beginning with the summer 2009 semester, the Citrus College class schedule will only be available online at www.citruscollege.edu/ar. By eliminating the printed version of the schedule, the college has increased both cost efficiency and environmental conscientiousness. In addition to saving financial and natural resources, the online class schedule will allow the college to ensure that course information is current. Class cancellations, changes, or closings will always be reflected online, making the registration process much smoother for students.

Renaissance Fair Tickets

ASCC has discounted adult tickets to this year's Renaissance Pleasure Faire, being held weekends through May 17th. Tickets are $20 each and may be purchased at the Student Business Office. The Owl Bookshop has a limited supply of tickets when the SBO is closed.

Foster/Kinship Care News
