Emergency Preparedness Information

As we begin spring semester, it is an ideal time to review the emergency and safety procedures that will save lives, reduce the number of injuries, minimize damage to our buildings and facilities, and enable us to resume instruction in a timely manner should an emergency occur.

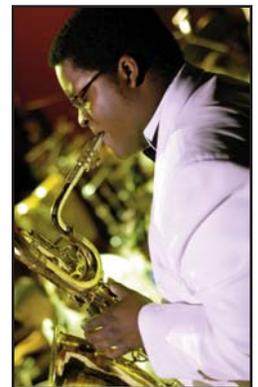

Please remember that safety at Citrus College is a personal and a collective responsibility. (Click here) to review the proactive measures that will help ensure the safety of our students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

Battle of the Big Bands Returning Soon!

The Citrus College Blue Note Swing Orchestra, led by Fine and Performing Arts Dean Bob Slack, will face off against the Azusa Pacific University Jazz Orchestra, led by David Beatty at 8 p.m. on Friday, March 19 and Saturday, March 20 in the Haugh Performing Arts Center.

This collaborative event brings two great groups together to create a fun musical experience. It is a great show that promotes a friendly rivalry between two excellent jazz programs. The goal is to see that the audience has fun, gains an appreciation for Big Band Jazz, and helps spread the word about the two high-caliber college music programs that are offered in the San Gabriel Valley.

Tickets for this popular event sell out quickly! General admission is $15. Senior admission is $13. Student admission is $10. For more information, contact the Haugh Performing Arts Center at (626) 852-8046 or visit <http://haughpac.com>.

Departments Collaborate to Produce Show

The Citrus College Cosmetology and Photography Departments are joining forces to present a unique event that is part art exhibit, part theatrical production, and part fashion show.

"The Evolution of Hair" will take place on Thursday, March 25 at 7 p.m. in the Ross L. Handy Campus Center at Citrus College. This exciting event is open to the public. Tickets are $8 and can be purchased in the Cosmetology Department.

Foster Youth Need Your Help

The Citrus College Youth Empowerment Strategies for Success (YESS) Foster Youth Program is in dire need of treats and drinks for youth ages 14 and 15 to enjoy while they are being tutored to pass the CAHSEE or while they attend night classes here on campus.

Suggested items for donation include Gatorade, granola bars, assorted candy, and mini bags of chips or cookies. Cash donations can be made to Citrus College, with a memo note to "YESS I Can!" and sent to the Citrus College Foundation, attention Cheryl Greer.

Save the Date: Earth Day

The college will hold its second annual Earth Day event, Wednesday, April 21 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Campus Center Mall. Join the members of the Citrus College Green Team as they "help our community appreciate and care for the environment." Activities include mini-workshops, information tables, food, activities and green products. For more information, visit www.citruscollege.edu/greenteam.

Save the Date: Spring 2010 College Fair

The Career/Transfer Center is pleased to announce its annual Spring 2010 College Fair, Thursday, March 25 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the Campus Center Mall. The college fair will expose Citrus College students to various transfer institutions and their transfer requirements, which will better prepare and assist our students with the transfer process.

This year, the Career/Transfer Center will host approximately 40 four-year institutions. Our students will have a great opportunity to meet with these college representatives to receive information and ask questions about transfer resources, options and requirements. For more information, visit the Career/Transfer Center webpage at www.citruscollege.edu or contact Raul Sanchez at extension 4064 or rsanchez@citruscollege.edu.

"The Gentleman of Magic" Is Back!

Join Dr. Dale Salwak, magic impresario and language arts instructor, for his annual "International Stars of Magic" show at the Haugh PAC, Saturday, March 13 at 8 p.m. To date, magicians, illusionists, and jugglers from Spain, the Czech Republic, Japan and the U.S. are confirmed, with more performers to be announced. As a special treat, Dale's son, Ryan, will also perform. Tickets are $22 for adults, $20 for students and seniors, and $15 for children under 16. Visit www.haughpac.com for more details.

On Saturday afternoon, March 13, Dale will also present "Hocus Pocus," featuring comedy jugglers, The Gizmo Guys. There will be two Haugh performances at 1:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Tickets are $6; group tickets for 10 or more are $5 and must be purchased 24 hours in advance.
