Writing Cafe to Debut!

Attention instructors: Tell your students about the new Writing Café! This special writing center provides students with an opportunity to work on written assignments in a casual and comfortable environment conducive to writing skills development.

Students can come to the Writing Café for help with writing from any class including assignments for essays, research papers/projects, marketing plans or lab reports. Support will be available for students at any stage in the writing process, from planning to proofreading. The College Success Center in ED 224 will be the Writing Café's temporary address. A pilot version of the Café will debut in Summer 2010. Please direct your concerns, ideas, or questions to Gina Hogan at ghogan@citruscollege.edu or (626) 857-4129.
