How Do You Give Back?

It is that time of year again! The next issue of the Citrus View newsletter will be dedicated to the many ways the faculty, staff, and students of Citrus College give back to their communities. If you or anyone you know is actively involved in community service or volunteer activities, we want to know about it! Please e-mail Stacy Armstrong at sarmstrong@citruscollege.edu with the following details: name, department, e-mail address, phone number, name of the organization you volunteer with and a description of the service you provide.

Annual CSEA Holiday Buffet

CSEA is holding their annual Holiday Buffet and Table Decorating Contest on December 8, 2011 from 12 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Campus Center. Tickets are $8 per person and proceeds will be used for student scholarships. This popular event is open to everyone, so make your reservations today! Remember, no tickets will be sold at the door. The buffet will include light lunch items. One hour of release time has been granted for classified staff, however all offices must remain open. If you and your co-workers are interested in competing in the table decorating contest, contact Pam McGuern at ext. 8532 to receive your table assignment. Or, to make your reservations and purchase raffle tickets contact Karen Giles (ext. 8596), Tina Crosby (ext. 8690) or Angie Delgado (ext. 4066).

Bulletin

Dr. Perri's Holiday Social

Save the date! Dr. Geraldine Perri, superintendent/president, will be hosting her second annual Holiday Social on Wednesday, December 14, 2011 from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Center for Innovation community room (CI 159). The theme for the event is "A Citrus Carol."

Library Hours

The Hayden Memorial Library will be open Saturday, December 10 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The purpose for these extended hours is to provide students with a quiet spot for last minute studying and preparing for finals.

Christmas Caroler Casting Call

Calling all singers! The Superintendent/President's Office is looking for volunteer carolers for the second annual Citrus College holiday social. If you are interested in serenading your colleagues, please contact the Office of External Relations at (626) 857-4082. Vocal talent and singing skills are not required! All that is needed is the ability to have a good time! The theme for this year's event is "A Citrus Carol." It will be held on Wednesday, December 14 in the CFI Community Room from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Adopt A Family

The Orfalea Family Children's Center is looking for people and offices to adopt families this holiday season. If you are interested in participating in the Holiday Family Program, contact Emmy Madrid at ext. 5061. She will assign you a family and provide the pertinent information regarding the number of children, ages, sex, etc. You will then need to assemble your gifts and bring them to the Children's Center on Monday, December 5 or Tuesday, December 6 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. For more information, call ext. 5061.

Adopt An Angel

CARE/CalWORKs announces the return of its Adopt An Angel Program for the holiday season. The "angels" are the children of Citrus College CARE/CalWORKs single-parent students who need help providing an uplifting holiday experience for their children. Help create smiles this holiday season by adopting a child or two. Donated gifts will be given to the children by Santa Claus during the Adopt An Angel Holiday Party on December 8. For more information, call ext. 8555.
