Got Citrus News?

We want to hear from you. E-mail Citrus-related information to CitrusBulletin@citruscollege.edu. The Bulletin is distributed to all faculty and staff via campus e-mail. To view past issues of The Bulletin, please visit (and bookmark): www.citruscollege.edu/pio.

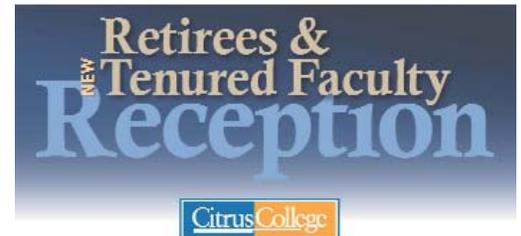

May Declared Alumni Month

The Board of Trustees recently approved a resolution designating May as Alumni Month. Plans for Alumni Month include activities and events that focus on the Citrus College Foundation and the Citrus Alumni Association, as well as outreach to students who will graduate in June. This year's Alumni Month observance includes awareness building through local newspaper advertising and a direct mail campaign to Foundation donors and alumni.

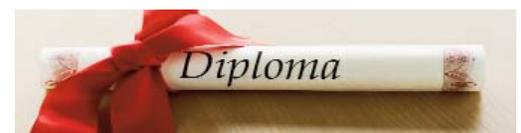

CDC Book Sale

The Citrus College Child Development Center will be holding a Scholastic Book Fair from Monday, May 9 through Friday, May 20 in the lobby of the Child Development Center. Books can be purchased between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Those who need later hours can make arrangements by calling Emmy Madrid at (626) 914-8501. The CDC will receive a certain number of books based on their sales, so everyone is encouraged to stop by and support the children!

To celebrate the contributions of Citrus College tenureds and retirees, the Citrus Community College District Board of Trustees is sponsoring a special reception on Tuesday, May 17 from 3:30 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. in the Center for Innovation Community Room. As long as all offices remain open, classified staff may take release time with supervisor approval.

Transfer Workshop

The Career/Transfer Center will be hosting a Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG) Workshop on Thursday, May 19 from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the Library Fishbowl. Instructors are asked to encourage their students to attend this workshop. Transfer admission to four-year colleges and universities is becoming increasingly competitive. By attending this workshop, students can receive information on how to minimize competition and guarantee themselves admission into one of the seven UC campuses that offer TAG. To RSVP for the workshop, students can call (626) 914-8639.

Achievement Awards

Save the date for the annual Academic Achievement Awards Ceremony. This special evening, which begins with a dinner followed by awards presentations, will take place on Thursday, June 2, 2011 in the Ross L. Handy Campus Center.

Strengths Follow Up

Have you ever seen a really good movie and wished the story would continue? Well, that's the lingering effect the April 22nd Strengths workshop has had on some classified staff at Citrus College. Understanding personal themes such as consistency, developer, and adaptability, have helped raise awareness of our own talents AND acceptance of others. Now, participants have the opportunity to attend the second of two follow-up sessions that will allow them to exercise their strengths. The second brown bag lunch session will be held June 3 at noon in PC 314. For more details, contact Tina Crosby at ext. 8690.

Commencement

The 95th Citrus College Commencement Ceremony is Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m. in the college stadium. In the event of rain, the ceremony will be held on Monday, June 20, 2011 at 6:30 p.m. Graduates and their guests, as well as faculty and staff planning to attend, should check the commencement section of the Citrus College web site for important information about rehearsal, the ceremony, caps and gowns and parking, as well as information related to postponement.

Achievement

- Congratulations to Jean Culp, adjunct history instructor. She has been selected to participate in a National Endowment for the Humanities workshop entitled, "United by Water: Shipwrecks and Maritime Landscapes of the Great Lakes." The workshop will take place July 17 through 23 at the Thunder Bay National Marine Sanctuary on the shores of Lake Huron in Alpena, Michigan.
- Congratulations to Kathy Bakhit, faculty member; Dana Hester, faculty member; Martha McDonald, dean of students; and Eric Rabitoy, dean of physical and natural sciences. They have all recently defended their dissertations and earned their doctorates.
