Clarion Newspaper Earns Top Honors

STUDENT PRODUCED NEWSPAPER WINS MULTIPLE AWARDS AT STATE COMPETITION

Kudos to the staff of the Clarion newspaper who participated in the Journalism Association of Community Colleges' state convention March 22-24 and took home a "Pacesetter" award for excellence. This is the highest honor for student publications in the California community college system. Citrus College's journalism students also won General Excellence awards for both the print newspaper and theclariononline.com website, in addition to numerous individual awards for student editors at the three-day convention.

CCSSE UPDATE

The collegewide CCSSE survey will take place during the two weeks immediately following Spring Break, April 23 through May 4. The Office of Institutional Research will be contacting faculty by e-mail regarding the specific designated survey date for his/her class the first week of April.

DISASTER SURVIVAL SKILLS

As a public community college district employee, you may be called upon to serve as a disaster service worker in the event of an emergency. To help define that role, a Disaster Survival Skills workshop open to all classified, faculty, management, and supervisor/confidential staff is scheduled for Friday, April 20, 2012 in the Campus Center, East Wing from 7:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Training will cover light urban search and rescue, triage and fire utility control, among other topics. Please RSVP to Caroline Locke at clocke@citruscollege.edu by April 13, 2012.

SanFACC Applications Due

2012-13 SanFACC Mentor Program Applications are now available. The goal of the SanFACC mentor program is to identify potential community college leaders and to pair them with mentors whose background fit the mentee's needs, to assist them in preparing for administrative leadership roles. If interested in applying, please return a completed application packet to Eric Rabitoy (PS 114) Friday April 20, 2012.

Me Small, Space Big

The Citrus College Hayden Library presents an art extravaganza running from April 4-30. A reception is scheduled for April 13 from 6-8 p.m. For more information, contact the library at 626-914-8640 or library@citruscollege.edu

"Sweeney Todd" debuts at the Haugh

The Citrus College musical theatre workshop program's next production is the renowned Stephen Sondheim thriller "Sweeney Todd." The production boasts a great sense of fun, dark humor and gloriously beautiful musical passages. The story chronicles the revenge of unjustly accused Sweeney against the judge who framed him and ravaged his young wife--fresh meat pies figure into the plot as well. April 13 & 14, 2012 at 8PM. April 15, 2012 at 2PM. Come and enjoy this dramatic musical masterpiece.

Sports Briefs

The baseball, softball and track seasons are off to a successful start. The Citrus College baseball team is 12-14, 7-6 conference, while the softball team is 17-12, 6-3 conference. The track team had seven of top 10 finishes at the recent 2012 Easter Relays hosted by Santa Barbara City College.
