Sabbatical Forum

The Academic Senate and the Vice President of Academic Affairs are hosting a campuswide sabbatical forum. Two faculty members, Claudia Pohl and Bruce Solheim, completed their sabbatical leaves last year and are presenting their project outcomes. The event will take place TODAY from 2:40 p.m. to 4 p.m. in CI 159.

Demonstration

Student education plans and degree audits are key components of student success and are part of the College of Completion agenda. Degree Works, a student education planning/degree audit tool that integrates with our Banner/WingSpan system, is being installed this term and will be available this fall for counselors. It will help students define a path to reach their educational goals and ensure they stay on track. A demonstration of Degree Works will be presented tomorrow, April 30, 2013, in the Campus Center East Wing from 1 to 2 p.m.

Speaker Series

Please notify your students that the Writing Café has been presenting a special speaker series throughout the month of April. The series, "Tune In, Turn On," will continue throughout May with topics such as "Do You Know What SpongeBob is Really Saying?," "Acing Your Interview," and "How to Make a Quote Sandwich." For a complete list of seminars, including dates and times, (click here). For more info, contact the Writing Café at (626) 857-4191.

Hair Show

The Cosmetology Department will be presenting their spring hair show, Cirque Du Coiffure, on May 9, 2013 in the Haugh Performing Arts Center. The doors open at 6:30 p.m. and the show will start at 7 p.m. Tickets are $10 and will be sold at the Cosmetology Department or in the Haugh Performing Arts Center Box Office.
