MUSIC

The Citrus Summer Conservatory is a comprehensive, 5-week curriculum designed for high school and community college students. Participants earn 6 college credits and gain extensive experience in all phases of musical theatre performance: acting, vocal and audition techniques, as well as dance and movement for the stage. Every student will have the opportunity to be showcased in a fully-staged, musical theatre production of Anything Goes.

Classes for this conservatory will be held, Monday - Friday, June 21 - July 18, from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM.

Performances will be in Citrus College’s Haugh Performing Arts Center on July 23 at 8:00 PM and July 24 at 2:00 PM.

Audition date: Saturday, May 15, 2010 at 9:00 AM
Location: Citrus College Fine & Performing Arts Building

Bring sheet music from a pop tune or a musical theatre selection in the key in which you plan to sing, and dress appropriately for the dance audition. A pianist will be provided.

Summer Instrumental Music Academy (SIMA)

SIMA provides high school and college level wind and percussion musicians the opportunity to review and strengthen fundamental performance skills and techniques. SIMA includes large ensemble and small ensemble performance, workshops on your instrument, music theory and musicianship, and other unique musical explorations. Topics include sight reading, musical style and historical context, ensemble rehearsals and performance preparation, and music theory fundamentals. SIMA culminates with a series of recording sessions in the Citrus College Recording Technology Studios.

Classes for SIMA will be held, Monday - Thursday, July 6 - July 30 from 1:30 - 5:00 PM.

High school students will pay as little as $17 for the four weeks of summer musical instruction; plus $15 for parking if needed.

Summer Instrumental Jazz Academy (SIJA)

Classes for SIJA will be held, Monday - Friday, August 2 - August 13, 2010 from 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM.

THEATRE

The Citrus Theatre Company and Technical Production Laboratory work together to create two fully-staged theatrical productions in our Black Box theatre.

The Citrus Theatre Company allows students to have the opportunity to work with a professional director and college actors. Students will work with instructors who have been in the professional field for years and continue to do so. Delve deeper into the areas of personalization, substitutions, character development and more. This experience will give you a head start into the demands of the professional world!

This year, the Citrus Theatre Company will perform Splendor in the Grass from July 23 - August 1, 2010.

Summer Acting Intensive for High School Students

A challenging theatre arts program, which stimulates the student’s imagination and excites their passion for training. This course includes acting techniques, movement, voice, speech, and scene study, along with a final showcase performance on July 15, 2010.

This intensive is a rigorous program that is fast and affordable. Join us and experience the quality of theatre training available at Citrus College!

Class will be held Tuesday - Thursday from 1:00 - 4:00 PM.

DANCE

The Citrus Dance Program is directed by our full-time instructor John Vaughan. Our adjunct faculty and director are extremely accomplished in the dance field. All hold advanced degrees in dance or musical theatre and have performed in the professional dance world, including Broadway and Hollywood.

We are offering a variety of dance classes this summer, including beginning and intermediate jazz, as well as beginning and intermediate ballet.

Be sure to visit www.citruscollege.edu for the latest class schedule information.

ART

Introduction to Visual Arts will be offered through Study Abroad in Florence, Italy with full-time artist and instructor Mike Hillman. Students will explore the visual arts through aesthetics, critique history, and by creating art through various mediums. For more information please contact Lynn Jamison, Study Abroad Specialist at (626) 914-8569 or email ljamison@citruscollege.edu.

In addition, various art history classes will be offered at Citrus College during Summer 2010. Be sure to visit www.citruscollege.edu for the latest class schedule information.

RECORDING ARTS

NEW! The One-Year HD Film School in a Month!

In this four-week intensive workshop, Emmy winning writer/producer/director Jim Lindsay and his team of pros from the Discovery, History and National Geographic channels will provide the essential skills and real-world secrets necessary to jump start a career in professional video production. The workshop is designed for high school and college students and offer career professionals needing to learn HD production skills. Topics will cover key elements of story structure, screenwriting, directing, cinematography, lighting, sound recording, editing, post production and the business of the entertainment industry. There will be an opportunity for students to produce shorts or music videos to be critiqued by instructors. The workshop also includes hands-on introduction to editing and shooting with pro HD cameras, plus group and one-on-one advice on how to get jobs in Los Angeles.

Instructor: Jim Lindsay

Primary instructor and curriculum designer has: written, produced and directed more than 100 hours of award winning prime-time programming for major networks, including NBC, CBS, FOX, SHOWTIME & DISCOVERY. Fees $450

Monday - Friday, June 14 - July 2, 2010 from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Monday - Friday, July 12 - August 6, 2010 from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

NEW! Can I Make it in Television?

This two-day weekend seminar with Emmy winning writer/producer/director Jim Lindsay and his team of pros from the Discovery, History and National Geographic channels is designed for high school and college students, graduates and others considering a career in pro HD video production. Insights into the real world of what can be expected in terms of skill sets, formal education and connections required to succeed will be discussed. Topics will include basic story structure, cinematography, editing and how to get the jobs in Los Angeles, regardless of experience and academic background.

Instructor: Jim Lindsay

Saturday/Sunday, July 17 & 18 from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM
Saturday/Sunday, August 7 & 8 from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

For more information on any of the Summer Arts Programs, please contact the Fine & Performing Arts Office at (626) 914-8569 or email afaa@citruscollege.edu.