

PROGRAM OF STUDY

COMPUTER GENERATED IMAGERY (CGI) - Certificate of Achievement

Term Effective: Fall 2011

Total Units: 22.5

This program provides coursework for majors such as architecture, computer generated imagery (CGI), engineering and animation. Design principles, CAD and animation systems are applied to problems in animation, architecture, landscape architecture, urban planning and engineering. Proper and efficient methods of sketching, story boarding, 3D digital models, animations and multifaceted presentations' are examined.

REQUIRED COURSES

Course	Title	Units	Completed	In Progress	Need
DRAF 160	Intermediate Computer Aided Design (CAD)	2.5
DRAF 161	Advanced Computer Aided Design (CAD)	2.5
DRAF 290	Introduction to Maya Practices.	3
ARCH 200	Portfolio Preparation	3
ART 111	Beginning Drawing	3
ART 120	Two-Dimensional Design	3
ART 115	Figure Drawing I	3
ARCH 102	Visual Communication	2.5
DRAF 102	or Visual Communication	2.5

Total Units: 22.5

Employment opportunities: Entry level - Animation Modeler

Certificates of Achievement general policies and procedures, or go to: www.citruscollege.edu/stdntsrv/counsel/certificates