Private, Nonprofit Colleges & Universities — by Region

1. Northern California — 1 campus
   Simpson University — Redding

2. San Francisco Bay Area — 20 campuses
   California College of the Arts — San Francisco
   California Institute of Integral Studies — San Francisco
   Dominican University of California — San Rafael
   Golden Gate University — San Francisco
   Holy Names University — Oakland
   Menlo College — Atherton
   Mills College — Oakland
   Notre Dame de Namur University — Belmont
   Pacific Union College — Angwin
   Palo Alto University — Palo Alto
   Saint Mary’s College of California — Moraga
   Samuel Merritt University — Oakland
   San Francisco Art Institute — San Francisco
   San Francisco Conservatory of Music — San Francisco
   Santa Clara University — Santa Clara
   Saybrook University — San Francisco
   Sophia University — Santa Clara
   Stanford University — Stanford
   Touro University California — Vallejo
   University of San Francisco — San Francisco

3. Central Valley — 4 campuses
   Fresno Pacific University — Fresno
   Humphreys College — Stockton
   University of the Pacific — Stockton
   William Jessup University — Rocklin

4. Central Coast — 4 campuses
   California Lutheran University — Thousand Oaks
   Fielding Graduate University — Santa Barbara
   Thomas Aquinas College — Santa Paula
   Westmont College — Santa Barbara

5. Los Angeles/Kern — 31 campuses
   American Jewish University — Bel Air
   Antioch University Los Angeles — Los Angeles
   Art Center College of Design — Pasadena
   Azusa Pacific University — Azusa
   Biola University — La Mirada
   California Institute of Technology — Pasadena
   California Institute of the Arts — Valencia
   Charles R. Drew Univ. of Medicine & Science — Los Angeles
   Chicago School of Prof. Psychology — Los Angeles
   Claremont Graduate University — Claremont
   Claremont McKenna College — Claremont
   Harvey Mudd College — Claremont
   Keck Graduate University — Claremont
   Loyola Marymount University — Los Angeles
   Marymount California University — Rancho Palos Verdes
   Master’s College, The — Santa Clarita
   Mount St. Mary’s College — Los Angeles
   Occidental College — Los Angeles
   Otis College of Art and Design — Los Angeles
   Pacific Oaks College — Pasadena
   Pepperdine University — Malibu
   Phillips Graduate Institute — Chatsworth
   Pitzer College — Claremont
   Pomona College — Claremont
   Scripps College — Claremont
   Southern California University of Health Sciences — Whittier
   University of La Verne — La Verne
   University of Southern California — Los Angeles
   Western University of Health Sciences — Pomona
   Whittier College — Whittier
   Woodbury University — Burbank

6. Orange — 7 campuses
   Brandman University — Irvine
   Chapman University — Orange
   Concordia University Irvine — Irvine
   Hope International University — Fullerton
   Laguna College of Art & Design — Laguna Beach
   Soka University — Aliso Viejo
   Vanguard University — Costa Mesa

7. Riverside/San Bernardino — 4 campuses
   California Baptist University — Riverside
   La Sierra University — Riverside
   Loma Linda University — Loma Linda
   University of Redlands — Redlands

8. San Diego/Imperial — 5 campuses
   Alliant International University — San Diego
   National University — La Jolla
   Point Loma Nazarene University — San Diego
   San Diego Christian College — El Cajon
   University of San Diego — San Diego

For additional information visit aiccu.edu.
Students at AICCU Colleges and Universities Receive a Quality Education

- All applications are personally reviewed.
- Classes are smaller—generally taught by professors, rather than teaching assistants.
- Students receive personal attention to help them succeed in college and life.

Quick Facts

320,000 undergrad and graduate students enroll annually at the 76 AICCU institutions.

86% of Students Receive Financial Aid

(percentage of students receiving aid by type)

- Cal Grants: 18%
- Pell Grants: 30%
- Federal Student Loans: 62%
- University Grants: 78%

Learn in a Diverse Community

(undergraduate student diversity)

- 1% Native American
- 12% Asian American
- 6% Black/African American
- 21% Latino/a
- 1% Pacific Islander
- 46% Caucasian
- 6% Non-Resident Alien
- 6% Race/Ethnicity Unknown
- 4% Two or More Races

Graduate in Four Years

(percentage of students who graduate in 4 & 6 years)

AICCU Institutions comparable to UC

- AICCU: 69% 4 years, 79% 6 years
- Univ. of Calif.: 40% 4 years, 53% 6 years

AICCU Institutions comparable to CSU

- AICCU: 40% 4 years, 53% 6 years
- Calif. State Univ.: 16% 4 years, 49% 6 years

Student-to-Faculty Ratio

(averages 12:1 at AICCU institutions)

Helpful Websites

aiccu.edu
The Guide is available in a searchable format at aiccu.edu. You can search using various criteria, including: school name, location, and major, etc.

CaliforniaColleges.edu
CaliforniaColleges.edu offers information about independent, nonprofit colleges and universities in California; including comparable information about the public systems. It offers users a course planner, career exploration tools, and valuable financial aid information.

UCAN-network.org
UCAN provides consumer friendly information about independent colleges for counselors, students, and parents.