Jerome & Trixie

Jerome is a 12 year old mix of Brussels Griffon and Wire-Haired Daschund. Twelve years ago a Citrus student showed up to my Final Critique with a pet carrier and two small puppies to give away. They were so adorable! I was not looking to adopt a dog, but I decided that I would bring them both home. Days later, while on a road trip to Northern California for Christmas, we decided to keep the boy pup and name him Jerome. My Dad and Stepmom decided to adopt the girl, naming her Trixie. The two get to visit each other every couple of years. Jerome loves to cuddle and will trade off sleeping with me some nights and my daughters the other nights. He is a charmer! Many friends and family have declared that they are Jerome's favorite!
