SPORTS/TEAM: I go to sporting events strictly for the oversized hotdogs and nachos!

Traveling is my biggest passion and I try to go somewhere new at least once a year - Thailand was the destination this past winter, where I got to spend a magical day at an elephant sanctuary. When I'm not planning a trip, I enjoy spending time at the beach, going to concerts (especially at the Hollywood Bowl), listening to murder podcasts or watching crime shows, and playing the latest goofy game (Pie Face Showdown, anyone?) with my niece and nephew.

FUN FACTS

- I've danced since I was 7 - tap is still my favorite.
- I was a lifeguard and swim instructor for 10 years. I feel most at home in the water.
- I love to cook and bake, and I even won a pie competition last year!
