AP 4101 INDEPENDENT STUDY

References: Title 5 Sections 55230 et seq.

Independent study programs are developed by establishing a learning contract for the specific class and must be signed by the student taking the class, the faculty member teaching the class, and the division dean. The learning contract is established in consultation with a faculty member and must be submitted to the Admissions and Records Office by the deadlines established by the college. It must include the number of units and hours of study required, the work product to be evaluated, and the college facilities required.

Academic standards and procedures for evaluation of student progress for independent study are the same as those applied to other credit or noncredit courses.

Access to the instructor is the same as that commonly available to students in courses conducted by other instructional methods.
