

CONSTITUTION OF THE
CITRUS COLLEGE ACADEMIC SENATE

ARTICLE 1: PREAMBLE

The Citrus College Academic Senate is formed in order to insure democratic participation of the faculty in shared governance, as in accordance with AB 1725, in the development of policies and procedures of the college and to foster the long-range interests and well-being of the college.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

The Academic Senate is established for the purposed of participation in the formation of educational and professional policy. The Academic Senate Executive Board (the governing body of the Senate) shall serve as the official representative body of the Senate on all non-contract matters. The Academic Senate is empowered to make recommendations to the Administration, Board of Trustees and all campus committees. It also has the right to lay directly before the governing board its views on any matter pertaining to the conduct and welfare of the College after advising the College President of such intent.

ARTICLE III: OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. The officers and executive board for the Senate shall be President, Past President (preferably Immediate Past-President), Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Curriculum Chair and the CCFA Liaison.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall meet at least twice per month.

Section 3. The President shall call all meetings of the Executive Board either on his or her own initiative or at the request of a majority of the Board.

Section 4. A quorum for conducting Executive Board business shall be four members.

ARTICLE IV: NOMINATIONS, ELECTIONS AND VOTING PROCEDURES

Section 1. As soon as possible after the beginning of the spring semester, nominations of Senate officers shall be made by a committee of five composed of the Vice-President and four such persons as he/she shall select. If an officer chooses to run for a second term, his/her name shall appear on the ballot. Results of the nominations shall be published prior to the fourth week of Spring Semester. As soon as is practical, but not less than ten (10) school days after this publication there shall be a Senate meeting where nominations from the floor shall be accepted.

At the conclusion of the nominating process, if there is more than one candidate for an office, an election by secret ballot shall be held within two weeks after this Senate meeting. If there is only one candidate for an office, the election shall be held by a vote of acclamation at the next Senate meeting where a quorum of Senators is present unless five (5) or more Senators call for an election by secret ballot at that meeting. Voting by absentee ballot shall be allowed insofar as possible. Counting of the ballots shall be done by the Election Committee with a minimum of two senate officers being present. An impartial observer, selected by the President from the membership, shall be present during the counting of the ballots and all shall certify the ballot counting.

Section 2.

When an election by secret ballot is conducted, the Academic Senate Executive Board shall establish the date and time at which the polling shall begin and end. Voting shall take place during at least five days of instruction. Before the appointed time for polling to begin, the Executive Board shall have prepared departmental voting packets consisting of the following:

1. One ballot for each full-time faculty member and two adjunct senators as representative members to the Academic Senate.
2. An inner envelope in which to seal the completed ballot.
3. An outer envelope in which to seal the inner envelope.
4. The outer envelope shall have the member's name and a place for the member's signature.

At the beginning of the polling process, the Senate Vice President shall distribute to each Departmental Representative (or designee) a voting packet.

The Senate Secretary shall maintain a record of who receives each voting packet and the number of blank ballots distributed.

Each senator, i.e. each representative, who receives the voting packet shall insure that each Senate member listed on the Departmental Roster will be personally contacted and given an opportunity to vote. The senator will also insure that all members who choose to vote will sign their name on the outer envelope and give the double sealed ballot to their senator. When all members of the department have voted, or at the end of the polling period, the departmental senator will return to the election committee the following:

1. Departmental roster with the name of each member who voted and their signature.
2. All of the signed, double-sealed ballot envelopes.
3. All unused ballots.

Section 3.

Counting of the ballots shall be done by the Election Committee with a minimum of two senate officers being present. An impartial observer, selected by the President from the membership, shall be present during the counting of the ballots and all shall certify the ballot counting.

At the time of counting of the ballots, the signatures on the outer envelopes shall be verified. Any unsigned or otherwise invalid outer envelopes shall be separated out and remain unopened. Then the valid inner envelopes shall be separated from the outer envelopes without opening the inner envelopes so that the inner envelopes become anonymous. The inner envelopes shall be combined and then opened and the ballots counted.

The Secretary shall record the results of the voting and these results shall be certified by all the Academic Senate members present during the counting of the ballots. The election records shall be retained for no fewer than six months after the election.

The Senate President shall make public the results of the balloting immediately following the count. If any officer or observer challenges the results of the polling because of perceived irregularities the matter shall be referred to the Academic Senate for resolution before it is made public.

Section 4.

In the event that more than two candidates run for an office and any one person does not receive fifty percent plus one vote, a runoff election will be held between the two top contenders within two weeks following the counting of votes.

Section 5.

Special elections by the Senate shall be conducted by the Executive Board. Counting of the ballots shall be done by the Senate officers, a minimum of two (2) being present. An impartial observer, selected by the President from the membership, shall be present during the counting of the ballots and all shall certify the ballot counting.

ARTICLE V:

RECALL ELECTIONS

Section 1. A recall of any person in an Academic Senate elective position may be initiated by a petition signed by one-third (1/3) of the active membership of the Senate. A statement of the reasons for the proposed recall shall be part of the recall petition.

Section 2. Each person named in the recall petition shall have the right to make a rebuttal statement which shall be distributed to their constituency at least 7 days before the recall election.

Section 3. Recall elections shall be by secret ballot.

Section 4. An absolute majority vote (one more than 50 percent of all Senate members) of the membership shall be necessary to affect the recall.

Section 5 Any vacancy, in any office, created by recall shall be filled by procedure as established under Article VI, Section 2.

ARTICLE VI: TERMS AND VACANCIES

Section 1. All senate officers shall be full time faculty members. All senate officers shall be eligible for reelection but may not serve more than two consecutive terms in one position. The term of office for the Executive Board members shall be from July 1 through June 30 of the following year.

The Senate President and Vice President shall be tenured faculty members and shall be elected for a term of two years subject to reaffirmation for the second year of the term by a majority vote of the Academic Senate no later than the second senate meeting of spring semester of the first year of the term. Candidates for Senate President must have served in the position of Senate Vice President for a minimum of one year at any time prior to the election.

In the event the President is not reaffirmed, the Vice President shall become President Elect and assume the position of Senate President on July 1 of that year to complete the two-year term. The vacant Vice President position shall be filled by the Senate President and ratified by majority vote of the Academic Senate.

The Treasurer and Secretary shall be elected for a term of one year. Term lengths shall be effective Fall 2018

Section 2. Vacancy shall be deemed to exist in the case of death, resignation, termination, or recall. The Senate President, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall fill by appointment any vacancy in the office of Senate Secretary, Senate

Treasurer, or At Large representatives. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Senate President, the Senate Vice-President shall assume the position. When a vacancy occurs in the office of Senate Vice-President, the Senate President shall call a meeting of the Senate for the purpose of accepting nominations from the floor for Senate Vice-President. If there is only one candidate for the office, the election shall be held by a vote of acclamation at the next Senate meeting where a quorum of Senators is present unless five (5) or more Senators call for an election by secret ballot at that meeting.

If there are two or more candidates for the office, an election shall be held according to the procedures provided in Article IV: Sections 2, 3, and 4. This meeting shall be held within two weeks but not sooner than five school days following the notification of the vacancy.

ARTICLE VII: EMPOWERMENT

The Academic Senate shall be represented on, and make recommendations to all appropriate college committees. It shall also make recommendations and have direct access to the college President and the Board of Trustees. It shall be further empowered to develop its own internal organization, to initiate studies, and to discuss problems and propose policies for administrative considerations.

As established by BP/AP 2510 of the Citrus College Board Policies and Procedures Section 3, Part a "for the following matters, the Board will rely primarily upon the advice of the Academic Senate" in academic and professional matters as listed below:

1. Educational program development.
2. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success.
3. District and college governance structures, as related to faculty roles.
4. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation, including the Self-Study and annual reports.
5. Policies for faculty professional development activities.
6. Processes for instructional and student services program review.
7. Degree and certificate requirements.
8. Grading policies.
9. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites and placing courses within disciplines.
10. Processes for institutional planning and budget development.

ARTICLE VIII: MEETINGS

Section 3.

Terms of Office: The terms of office for senators shall be for a period of three years, terms to be staggered with one-third of the representatives retiring each year. The term of office will run from July 1 through June 30. If any members resign or cease to serve for any reason, the newly elected member shall complete the term of the person who he or she replaces.

Section 4.

Election of the Academic Senate: Prior to the end of April, each affected department shall select its representative to the Academic Senate. This vote will be by secret ballot if requested by any department member. Each department shall notify the Senate President, in writing, the name of the newly elected senator from that department. Vacancies among the department senators shall be filled by departmental election within one (1) month of the occurrence of the vacancy in the manner stated in this section. Senators at Large shall be elected by ballot using the same ballot used for Senate Officers. Vacancies not filled shall be filled by appointment by the Academic Senate President in agreement with the Academic Senate Executive Board.

In the event a senator is unable to attend meetings or is absent at more than three Senate meetings, and reasonable effort and communication made to secure another representative from the corresponding discipline did not meet with success, the Senate President shall appoint an additional at large representative to complete the term of the person whom he or she replaces.

Vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the Academic Senate President in agreement with the Academic Senate Executive Board.

Section 5.

Empowerment: The Academic Senate is the executive body representing Faculty. The Academic Senate shall be empowered to conduct investigations and such business as shall be referred to the Academic Senate or initiated by members. Each senator shall vote according to the direction of their department or their knowledge of their department's majority inclinations. In the conduct of official business, a quorum shall consist of one more than half of the members defined in Article 9, Section 2 above. Recommendations to the President of the college or the Board of Trustees must be authorized by an absolute majority vote of the Academic Senate.

Section 6.

Committees: The Academic Senate shall be empowered to establish such committees as are needed to conduct investigations and conduct such business as shall be referred to the Academic Senate or initiated by Senate members. The Academic Senate defines the power and the duties of committees. The Senate President, shall appoint the chairperson of such committees.

Section 7

Reassignment evaluation: The Academic Senate President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Past President shall engage in an annual evaluation of each reassigned position within the senate's purview during the spring semester. The evaluation including a summary of commendations and recommendations shall be shared and discussed with each faculty member occupying a reviewed position.

Section 8

Self-evaluation of the Academic Senate: The Academic Senate Executive Board shall conduct an annual self-evaluation of the Academic Senate. The evaluation and summary of commendations and recommendations will be shared with the Academic Senate prior to the end of the spring semester.
