TECH TIP #8: BUILD A GRADING COMMENT LIBRARY

When you are using Speedgrader, you can save commonly used comments to your own comment library. Learn how!

1

SPEEDGRADER has a variety of feedback tools.

1. Points Earned

2. Assignment Rubric

3. Individual Comments

4. Comment Library

Submitted: Aug 26 at 1:13am
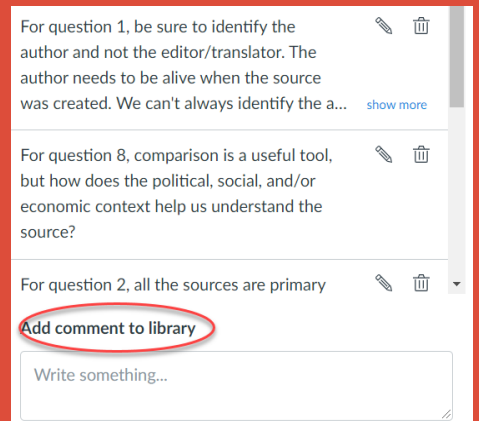

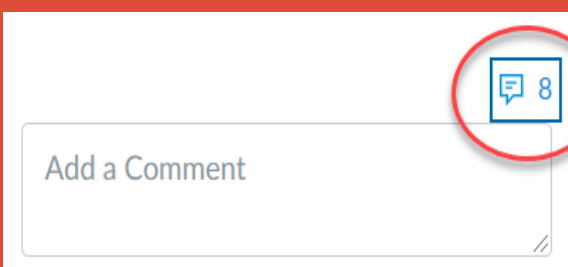

Assessment
Grade out of 15

[1]

View Rubric [2]

Assignment Comments

[4] 8

Add a Comment [3]

Submit

Download Submission Comments

2

Click on the "Comment" icon to open the library.

Add a Comment

8

For question 1, be sure to identify the author and not the editor/translator. The author needs to be alive when the source was created. We can't always identify the a... show more

For question 8, comparison is a useful tool, but how does the political, social, and/or economic context help us understand the source?

For question 2, all the sources are primary

Add comment to library

Write something...

3

There are tools available to manage your COMMENT LIBRARY

1. Edit an existing comment

2. Delete a comment from the library

3. Allow Canvas to predict the comment when you are typing in speedgrader.

Manage Comment Library

Show suggestions when typing [3] ✓

author and not the editor/translator. The author needs to be alive when the source was created. We can't always identify the a... show more

For question 8, comparison is a useful tool, [1] ✏ [2] 🗑 but how does the political, social, and/or economic context help us understand the source?

RESOURCES